

everett fritz

Catholic author and speaker

Everett has been serving the Church for over fifteen years. He is passionate about teaching discipleship as a method within the New Evangelization. Everett's primary charism is mentoring and it is a gift that he uniquely crafts into each of his presentations.

Everett speaks on the topics of discipleship, chastity, prayer and youth ministry. He has been featured on FORMED, EWTN, Catholic Answers, xt3.com (Australia) and in many dioceses, parishes and schools around the country.

Everett Fritz is the author of Freedom: Battle Strategies for Conquering Temptation – a Catholic book that guides men out of the shackles of sexual impurity through a relationship with Jesus Christ. Freedom is a best-selling book that is published by Ignatius Press and Lighthouse Catholic Media.

In 2016, Everett founded St. Andrew Missionaries – an organization dedicated to training and equipping the Catholic Church and families in discipleship of young people. He was also one of the lead developers of YDisciple – a small group discipleship program for teens, developed by the Augustine Institute. He holds a Masters degree in Theology from the Augustine Institute as well as a Bachelors degree in Theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville.

Everett married Katrina, his high school sweetheart in 2006. They reside in Denver, Colorado with their three children.

Everett will be presenting the Youth Ministry Leaders' Conference for the Office of Youth Ministry of the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau on January 27-29, 2017 at The Landing in Van Buren. Registration is required. Additional information can be found at <http://dioscg.org/index.php/about/youth-ministry/> or contacting Katie Newton at 417-866-0841, knewton@dioscg.org.
