

MAKING DISCIPLES

RCIA Institute - February 9-10, 2018

ALL Pastors, RCIA Directors, and RCIA Catechists are invited to attend!

If we are honest, I think a lot of us think of the RCIA as a really cool way to make Catholics. We aren't really thinking of making missionary disciples. What does that even mean? How would we even start? Well, that's something we should talk about. And we want you to be part of the conversation. We're inviting you (urging you, really) to join a group of adventurers and explorers like yourself to help figure out how the RCIA can make a real difference in our parishes. Over the course of a Friday evening and all-day Saturday, we are going to pull apart the RCIA and examine it from the inside out. We're going to figure out exactly how it is going to help us explore the "New World" Pope Francis imagines.

- * Discover exactly how the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults forms missionary disciples
- * Learn how to apply the core RCIA principles across all parish ministries
- * Acquire the skills to build an evangelizing parish
- * Know how to recruit and build a thriving RCIA team
- * Learn how to grow a pool of passionate and engaged sponsors

PRESENTED BY:

TEAM RCIA

Nick Wagner: Director and founder of TeamRCIA. He has more than 25 years experience as a leader and trainer in liturgical and catechetical ministry and was an active team member of the North American Forum on the Catechumenate.

Diana Macalintal: Director of Worship for the Diocese of San Jose. She has served as a liturgist and music director in parish, campus, and diocesan ministries for over 20 years. Diana also served on the team for the North American Forum on the Catechumenate.
