

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — Monday, July 20, 2020

Since the initial April 27, 2020, release outlining an allegation of sexual misconduct involving Fr. Gary Carr, retired, the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau has received three additional allegations involving Fr. Carr. The three allegations were reviewed by the Diocesan Safe Environment Review Board at its most recent June meeting, and all three were found to meet the criteria for publication as they satisfy the prevailing standard of Semblance of Truth.

One of the allegations involved a male, now an adult, who reported that Fr. Carr made inappropriate physical/sexual contact with him in 1987. This report has been forwarded to the Jasper County Prosecuting Attorney, the jurisdiction where the incident is alleged to have occurred. Another allegation involved a male, now an adult, who reported that Fr. Carr made inappropriate physical/sexual contact with him in the early 1990s. This report has been forwarded to the Butler County Prosecuting Attorney, the jurisdiction where the incident is alleged to have occurred. A third male, now an adult, reported that Fr. Carr made inappropriate physical/sexual contact with him in the early 1990s. This report has been forwarded to the Butler County Prosecuting Attorney, the jurisdiction where the incident is alleged to have occurred.

Fr. Gary Carr was born in 1954 in St. Louis, MO. He was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau in 1982 by then-Bishop Bernard F. Law. Father Carr was placed on Administrative Leave and restricted in his priestly ministry by Bishop James V. Johnston, Jr., in 2008. This action was re-affirmed by Bishop Edward M. Rice in 2016 upon his arrival to the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau. Father Carr is retired and resides in St. Louis.

Accountability & mandated reporting

The Diocese is committed to an atmosphere of safety for its people, one that is consistent with Catholic moral principles and free from abuse, harassment, discrimination, and violence, with respect to canon law, state and federal laws, and diocesan policies. If you or someone you know has been harmed by anyone working or volunteering within the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau, no matter how long ago, we want to provide healing resources to you and your family and the opportunity to be reconciled with you.

Report suspicions of abuse

If you suspect a child is in imminent danger of abuse, please call 911 immediately. Anyone who knows or suspects the abuse of minors or vulnerable adults should contact the Missouri Child Abuse and Neglect Hotline, 800-392-3738 or the Missouri Adult Abuse and Neglect Hotline, 800-392-0210. Any person or individual required to report suspected abuse may also report the suspicion of abuse or neglect to any law enforcement agency or juvenile office. Such report, however, shall not take the place of reporting to the Children's Division (above). Persons making a report of suspected abuse of a minor may also contact the diocesan Office of Child and Youth Protection, (417) 866-0841, or send a message via Email to childandyouthprotection@dioscg.org. Persons may also document an allegation through the secure diocesan Web-based "TIPS" reporting portal (see www.dioscg.org and look for "TIPS" link).

The Safe Environment Procedures for the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau and relevant policies related to keeping our children and adults safe, which includes training requirements and background screenings, are available for review under the Child and Youth Protection ministry tab on the diocesan Website at www.dioscg.org.
